Next Level Trails Path – Riley Spur Trail

Mark Clinkenbeard asked Larry Robbins to give an update on the bid opening meeting held the day before the meeting. Larry explained the next phase of this project is part of the Next Level Trails Grant from the city of Terre Haute. He said there was one bid for the project from Milestone Contractors South, LLC that came in higher than expected and said consultants were reviewing the bid documents. He said the city has the documents as well and the County will continue to work with the City going forward. Larry explained the process of approving the trail project with the Department of Natural Resources will delay the approval of the bid for a couple of weeks. Larry said Milestone had several projects at the time of the meeting and after the contractor completes some of the larger projects work will begin on paving local roadways. Larry gave brief updates on various highway projects across the County.
