Public Comments

Shannon Giles, Executive Director Humane Society extends invitation to the ribbon cutting on September 24th at 3pm. They are now open 5 days a week with a full time vet for minor injuries, spay and neuter at a well price. There will be a dedication to Chloe Carroll, some of the equipment in the clinic was bought with memorial funds that her family had set up.

Comments or other business from Commissioners or other Elected Officials.

Larry Robbins, Engineering/Highway Director, in September Community Crossing applications open. They are working on Harlan Road, Main Street out of Seeylville, Grotto, Davis, and possibly South 1st Street. Last year's Community Crossing projects are being completed. 7th street has been paved and stripers are scheduled for tomorrow. Erickson, Grotto, and Swalls has been paved and Chamberlain will be paved this week. Springhill will be finished up soon. Finishing up chip sealing the second week of October. Bridge 131 still working on pier placement with the goal to be open at the end of the year. Clinton Road utility relocation going on, starting in the spring.

Larry Hutchings, Digital Payroll started yesterday. Autumn and Morgan are the leads on this project.

Mark Clinkenbeard, Leanna Moore, open house for retirement. Thanked her for her service.

The meeting was recessed at 9:20 a.m.
